

JENNIFER BRUSSE – General Counsel, Valard Group of Companies

Jennifer joined the Valard Group of Companies in November 2016. As a member of the Executive for Valard Construction, Jennifer oversees the legal matters for the Valard Group of Companies across Canada. Jennifer is responsible for the Contracts Group within Valard and the Valard legal department.

Jennifer received her LL.B from the University of Western Ontario in 2004, and spent time practicing in both Toronto and Calgary with a large national law firm. In 2008, Jennifer joined one of the largest construction companies in North America as Legal Counsel where she handled all of the legal matters for two large business units, including managing claims and lawsuits, supporting projects, negotiating contract deals, handling labour and employment matters and overseeing other general legal matters. In 2014, she took on the role of Commercial Counsel, Senior Commercial Counsel and then Associate General Counsel where she focused her attention on negotiating and structuring multi-billion dollar projects for the construction company.
