

Chris Hustwick

Chris Hustwick is the Director of the Major Projects & Supply Chain Management Legal Affairs group with Suncor Energy Services Inc.

Prior to joining Suncor in 2007, Chris articulated and worked as an associate in the Calgary offices of a national law firm in the Construction, Engineering, Surety and Fidelity group.

Chris has experience in drafting and negotiating all types of construction, engineering and procurement related agreements and his position with Suncor involves him in all aspects of the development and operation of various energy projects in Canada, including oil sands, natural gas and wind-power projects.

Chris also has extensive experience in litigation, with a particular focus on construction and insolvency related claims.