Stephanie Cohen is a Canadian arbitrator of international and domestic commercial disputes, based in New York City. She is dually admitted to practice law in New York and Ontario, Canada.

Stephanie has nearly 20 years of experience handling complex commercial disputes. Since 2012, she has practiced exclusively as an arbitrator, serving as tribunal chair, sole arbitrator, co-arbitrator, and emergency arbitrator in matters governed by the ICC, ICDR, AAA, UNICTRAL, and Society of Maritime Arbitrators rules. Previously, Stephanie was Counsel in the international arbitration and commercial litigation practice groups at White & Case LLP in New York.

Stephanie serves on arbitrator rosters for the ICDR and AAA and has conducted training for the AAA's new arbitrators since 2019. She is also a CPR Distinguished Neutral as well as a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and Chair of its New York Branch. In addition, she is a member of the ICDR's Publications Committee, the ICCA-CPR-NYC Bar Association Working Group on Cybersecurity in International Arbitration, and the ICC Commission, for which she is Chair of the Working Group on Use of Information Technology in International Arbitration.
